The session program is available on certain days of the week, if you wish to sign up for a session you will need to use the link available on the website “sign up for a session” and complete the online request form. Sessions are filled on a first come first serve basis. If the ranch is able to meet the request you will receive an email within 48 hours confirming your session date and time with additional preparation information regarding the session. As noted above the schedule only opens one week or seven days at a time. You will be making your session requests just 1 week before your desired session date.

The available blocks of time include the following:

Morning: 10:00 to 11:30

Afternoon: 3:00-4:30
